

Grief Support Quilter's Group

Pat Gallagher holds a quilt she crafted in memory of her husband.

This group provides a unique way for men and women who are grieving to share their experiences in a casual environment while creating a lasting tribute to their loved one in the form of a meaningful quilt. Help will be available to assist you step-by-step. No sewing or quilting knowledge is necessary.

Meets the 1st & 3rd Wednesday of each month, 1 - 3 p.m.

I love and look forward to our quilt class. It is so relaxing, and everyone is so friendly. It's so easy to do. There is no hurry, just take our time. And we have our loved ones' things. Sometimes we talk about our loved ones, sometimes we don't. Sometimes we laugh and sometimes a tear comes in our eyes. It's a wonderful class. I just look so forward to getting there.

I look forward to every other Wednesday - Quilting Day. I wish it were every week. For me, it represents a "safe Place" where we can talk freely about our loved one, and be understood by compassionate people who suffer a similar wound.

It is also a place to be creative - even if someone has no experience with either quilting or sewing, and feels they are "not artistic." We design our own unique project, invested with our own meaning, and there is no right or wrong about how we accomplish it. Our very competent and patient instructor helps us with the how-to's of implementing our vision.

The quilting group is a comfort zone. A place where I can listen, talk, share, agree and remember. Putting the quilt together from the pieces of a life that I could not part with or keep in a drawer or closet gave me something tangible that I can see, touch, shed a tear and smile at everyday. I am extremely grateful that this group was formed. Thank you.
